The Debtors’ corporate headquarters and service address is 132 East Putnam Avenue, Floor 2W, Cos Cob, CT 06807.

Rights, including as to past and future royalties concerning the Picture; (v) waiver of the 14-day stay pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3); and (vi) granting of such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper under the circumstances. In support of its Motion, Movant respectfully states as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334.
2. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.
3. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).
4. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are Sections 362 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 4001(d) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”).

BACKGROUND

5. Movant and Debtor TOFG LLC dba 1091 (“TOFG”) entered a Video Distribution Agreement, (the “Distribution Agreement,” attached as Exhibit A) on or around January 15, 2021, wherein Movant granted TOFG certain distribution rights (the “Licensed Rights”)<sup>2</sup> to exploit for profit the motion picture titled No Ordinary Love (the “Picture”) worldwide. The Licensed Rights consist of:

- (a) TVOD Exploitation;
- (b) EST Exploitation;
- (c) SVOD Exploitation;
- (d) FVOD Exploitation (including AVOD Exploitation);

<sup>2</sup> The Picture is known to have been played on and/or available by video on demand or purchase through at least: Black Pix, Crackle, YouTube Movies, Amazon Prime Video, Verizon, iTunes, AppleTV, Microsoft Xbox, Fandango, Vudu.

(f) Television Exploitation, including Basic Television Exploitation, Free Television Exploitation, Pay Television Exploitation and Pay-Per-View Exploitation;

(g) Airline Rights, Ship Rights and other Transportation Rights.

See Exhibit A at § 1.02.

6. As a fee for the ongoing specified exploitation services to be performed by TOFG, Debtors were entitled to retain as a Distribution Fee a percentage of the gross royalties received on behalf of Movant, as well as certain expenses. See Exhibit A at § 6.01. The net royalties were to be paid to VFLLC during each accounting period. See Id.

7. Beginning prior to the petition date, Debtor failed to provide statements and payments to the Movant.

8. Movant has not received any payment for receipts earned by exploitation of the Picture since July 2023, for receipts dating to April. Because of the lack of reporting, Movant cannot quantify the total amounts owed to Movant by Debtors for Movant's earned royalties wrongfully withheld by Debtors and not paid to Movant.

9. In addition, Debtors had a number of accounting responsibilities under the Distribution Agreement including, but not limited to, provide Movant with online access to sales of Movant's films and estimated royalties activity, monthly statements and accountings to accompany payments. See Exhibit A at § 7.01. Movant also had rights to audit the accounting information. See Exhibit A at § 7.02.

10. The Distribution Agreement specifically grants either party the right to terminate in the event of any material breach by the other party that is not remedied within thirty (30) days after written notice.

11. Upon information and belief, the Debtors failed to fully perform their exploitation duties contemplated by the Distribution Agreement.

12. Prior to the Petition date, on or about December 11, 2023, Movant made demand upon TOFG that accounting documents identifying any and all funds received by TOFG be provided and that payment be made to Movant of any outstanding gross receipts then due and owing Movant by TOFG. See Exhibit B. Additionally, Movant provided TOFG with the contractual 30 day period for which to comply with the terms and conditions of the Distribution Agreement and provide appropriate and contractually mandated documentation and payment. No response to such demand was received by Movant.

13. Prior to the Petition date, on or about February 15, 2024, Movant sent written notices to the Debtor(s) of their being in material breach with respect to the Distribution Agreement, including with respect to royalties payment and reporting obligations and asserting Movant's right to terminate the Distribution Agreement. See Exhibit C.

14. Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code on June 28, 2024 and TOFG filed a voluntary Chapter 11 petition the following day (each, a "Petition Date"). Less than two weeks later, on July 10, 2024, the cases were converted to Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code [D.I. 120] and the Trustee was appointed. [D.I. 130].

15. The Distribution Agreement specifically grants Movant the right to terminate where, as here, Debtors filed a petition under bankruptcy law.

16. On July 30, 2024, the Chapter 7 Trustee filed a letter notifying all employees that the Debtors had ceased operations and all employees have been terminated (D.I. 192) (the "Notice of Non-Operation").

17. Upon information and belief, Debtors are not operating, not actively exploiting the Picture and cannot cure the breaches.

18. On September 10, 2024, all executory contracts, including the Distribution Agreement, were deemed rejected by operation of Section 365(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

19. As a result of the Debtors' bankruptcy, conversion of these cases from Chapter 11 to Chapter 7, and the deemed rejection of the Distribution Agreement, the rights and obligations of the Debtors to actively exploit the Picture for profit appear to have remained largely unperformed, to the detriment of Movant, and with no foreseeable avenue to obtain Movant's royalties that were earned and presumably will continue to be earned but unrecoverable until relief is granted.

20. Importantly, the Picture continues to be available through various providers (see Note 3) which presumptively have and should be providing royalty payments to the Debtors, but if so, those payments are disappearing into the nether, not available to Movant and not even quantifiable at this point because Debtors have ceased reporting.

BASIS FOR RELIEF REQUESTED

21. Section 362(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides:

(d) On request of a party in interest and after notice and a hearing, the court shall grant relief from the stay provided under subsection (a) of this section, such as by terminating, annulling, modifying or conditioning such stay....

(1) For cause, including lack of adequate protection of an interest in property of such party in interest.

11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1). The term "cause" is not defined in the Code, but rather must be determined on a case-by-case basis. In re Rexene Prods. Co., 141 B.R. 547, 576 (Bankr. D. Del. 1992) (internal citations and quotations omitted). "Cause is a flexible concept and courts often...examin[e] the totality of the circumstances to determine whether sufficient cause exists to lift the stay." In re SCO Group, Inc., 395 B.R. 852, 856 (Bankr. D. Del. 2007).

22. Courts in this District rely upon a three-pronged balancing test in determining whether “cause” exists for granting relief from the automatic stay to continue litigation:

(1) prejudice to the estate or the debtor, (2) hardship to the moving party resulting from maintenance of the stay weighed against hardship to the debtor, and (3) probability of success of the moving party on the merits. Trump Entm't Resorts, Inc., 526 B.R. 116, 120-21 (Bankr. D. Del. 2015) (citing Izzrelli v. Rexene Prods. Co. (In re Rexene Prods. Co.), 141 B.R. 574, 576 (Bankr. D. Del. 1992)). Here, the facts weigh in Movant’s favor on each of these three prongs.

23. First, neither the bankrupt estate nor the Debtors will suffer prejudice should the stay be lifted to allow Movant to terminate the Distribution Agreement. As discussed above, the Distribution Agreement was recently deemed rejected by operation of Section 365(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Agreement is effectively rejected and deemed “abandoned and [] no longer property of the estate.” In re Biggs, 271 F. App’x at 288. Thus, the Debtors have no cognizable interest in the Agreement following a deemed rejection under Section 365(d)(1). The Debtors cannot be prejudiced by the termination of an Agreement in which they have no interest and with respect to which they were in material breach of as of the Petition Date. Moreover, Debtors can no longer perform under the Distribution Agreement. Further, prior to the Petition date, Movant declared termination pursuant to the express terms of the Distribution Agreement.

24. As to the second prong, the balance of harms favors lifting the automatic stay. Movant will face hardship if denied the ability to terminate the Distribution Agreement and to maximize or protect the value of the Picture. Proceeds have stalled while Debtors fail to exploit the Picture. The Debtors have an obligation to Movant to exploit the Picture and maximize the Gross Profit generated from the Picture, and to deliver payment to the Movant received as royalties for their use of the Picture.

25. Third, the likelihood of success on the merits prong is satisfied, as “even a slight probability of success on the merits may be sufficient to support lifting an automatic stay.” In re Continental Airlines, Inc., 152 B.R. 420, 426 (D. Del. 1993). This prong also weighs in Movant’s favor. Movant has shown that the Debtors are in pre-petition material breach of the Agreement based on non-payment and other nonperformance of various contractual obligations, and Movant’s compliance with Section 11.01 of the Distribution agreement, concerning Termination. Further, the Debtors’ failure to fully exploit the Picture continues to harm Movant. Were that not enough, the deemed rejection of the Agreement constitutes a pre-petition breach occurring “immediately before” bankruptcy. In re Tempnology, LLC, 587 U.S. at 374, 139 S.Ct. 1652; 11 U.S.C. § 365(g). Upon lifting or modification of the automatic stay, Movant can lawfully terminate the Distribution Agreement, recover distribution rights and the right to receive payment for exploitation of the Picture, perform or engage a third-party to perform distribution and exploitation of the Picture, and actually receive the royalties entitled to be received with respect to the Picture. When weighing the above factors, the Court should lift the automatic stay to terminate the Distribution Agreement and grant related relief.

26. Further, the Debtors’ attempt at reorganization quickly failed and was converted to a Chapter 7 on July 10, 2024. [D.I. 120]. In the months since, the Debtors have been unable to secure funding to organize a liquidation of assets and their primary secured lender was recently granted relief from stay to pursue its rights in the Debtors’ assets. Thus, there is no reasonable prospect of reorganization. The Distribution Agreement is not “necessary to an effective reorganization.” See 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2)(B). As a result, relief from the automatic stay is mandatory. See Nantucket Investors II v. Cal. Fed. Bank. (In re Indian Palms Assocs., Ltd.), 61 F.3d 197, 208 (3d Cir. 1995) (“the language of section 362(d)(2) is mandatory, when both factors necessary for relief under section 362(d)(2) are met ‘the court shall grant relief.’”).

27. Thus, Movant respectfully submits that any order granting this Motion should be effective immediately upon its entry, notwithstanding the fourteen (14) day stay contemplated in Fed.R.Bankr.P. 4001(a)(3). Continuance of the automatic stay does not serve any purpose other than to delay termination of the Distribution Agreement and delaying Movant’s ability to recoup and mitigate against losses caused by Debtors over an extended period of time.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Movant respectfully requests entry of an Order in substantially the form attached hereto, and for such further additional relief as may be just and proper under the circumstances.
